Privacy Notice

Overview

The Research Center for Children, Youth, and Families (RCCYF) carefully protects the privacy and security of its clients' individually identifiable health information. RCCYF staff do not access protected health information. RCCYF's privacy and security policies and web-based systems conform to the requirements of the Health Information Portability and Accountability Act (HIPAA) and the Health Information Technology for Economic and Clinical Health Act (HITECH). RCCYF's privacy and security policies are available for review.

Consent to Collect, Process and Store Data

Your provider or your provider's designee has requested that you complete this assessment. The RCCYF's web-based systems process and store data that you enter, but only your provider or your provider's designee can access your data. You may revoke your consent at any time by contacting your provider or your provider's designee.

Disclosure

RCCYF will not transmit your data to anyone except your provider or your provider's designee.
